PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 2.—Hanton's new collection of Trolley Dodgers made their first appearance of the season here to-day and a fair Saturday crowd turned out to look them over.

The visitors presented a patched-up team, with Strang in centre and Jordan at third, and were shy on catchers, Jackisch, the former Philadelphia favorite, having been left at home with a smashed finger, the result of an accident while playing.

The Phillies looked a bit out of kilter after their session with the League leaders from Harlem, but anticipate easier game in the three sessions with the crowd from Gowanus.

The two pitchers slated to handle up shots to-day had shut-outs to their credit in the series at Brooklyn last week. Mitchell, the slowtown artist, and the kalmine Friday week and "Wetters" Schmidt returned the compliment on the following afternoon.

It looked like a warm argument when the teams lined up. Hanlon warned his bird men before the game that he would stand for no rowdiness like that at Washington Park yesterday.

Manager McGraw, of the New Yorks, is confined in his room in the Continental Hotel here and was visited by some of the Brooklyn. Mac had a couple of hemorrhages of the nose after the plaster-cast was removed from the injured appendage, and last night he bled so badly that a physician had to be called in. The doctor ordered him to remain in his room and the New Yorks left without him.

At the last minute the two managers swapped horses, Dugleby and Evans being sent to the box with Zimmer and Ahearn at the receiving end. The weather was too cool for Schmidt's California blood. Attendance 3,500.

First Inning.
Strang sent a fly to Keister. McCredie walked. Sheppard line-flied to Keister, who threw to first in time to double McCredie up. No runs.

Thomas sent a liner to Sheppard, Barry singled to Jordan. Zimmer singled to left, advancing Hulswit to third. Zimmer stole second. Dugleby flied. No runs.

Second Inning.
Dugleby's vicious drive caught Dugleby in the pit of the stomach. He threw the runner out and then dropped, but recovered in a minute or so. Dahlen struck out. So did Ahearn. No runs.

Brasher fanned. Sheppard cut Douglas's fly after a long run. Hulswit sent a slow grounder to Jordan. Zimmer singled to left, advancing Hulswit to third. Zimmer stole second. Dugleby flied. No runs.

Third Inning.
Flood was out. Douglas to Dugleby, on a close play. Jordan singled to right. Evans beat out a punt to Wolverton. Strang singled to left. Barry's grounder pulled at the plate on Barry's good throw. Strang stole second. McCredie flied out to Keister. No runs.

Thomas walked. Barry lifted a foul fly to Doyle. Wolverton grounded to Dahlen. Thomas advancing to second. Keister died. Dahlen to Doyle. No runs.

Fourth Inning.
Sheppard singled. Thomas made a sensational catch of Doyle's liner, and Sheppard was doubled up at first. Dahlen foul flied to Keister. No runs.

Brasher was fielded out by Dahlen. Douglas fanned. Strang caught Hulswit's fly after a desperate chase. No runs.

Fifth Inning.
Douglas did not have to move to take Ahearn's torrid liner. Flood was easy. Brasher to Douglas. Jordan grounded to Hulswit. No runs.

Zimmer was extinguished. Dahlen to Doyle. Dugleby was safe on Flood's fumble. Thomas walked. Barry singled to left, filling the bases. Wolverton grounded to Jordan. Zimmer retired the side with a fly to Strang. No runs.

Sixth Inning.
Evans struck out. Strang lifted a foul to Zimmer. McCredie singled in centre. Sheppard was called out on strike. No runs.

Brasher was fielded out by Jordan. Douglas singled. Second. Hulswit walked. Sheppard hauled down Zimmer's fouled fly to left. Dugleby hit to Dahlen, forcing Hulswit at second. No runs.

Seventh Inning.
Doyle's drive was too warm for Wolmer. He was caught stealing. Zimmer to Brasher. Ahearn singled to right. Brasher made a corking stop. Flood's torrid well and threw the runner out. Dahlen fanned. No runs.

Dahlen hit. Doyle's disposed of. Thomas was extinguished. Barry to Barry at second. Keister singled to left, scoring Barry. Wolverton to Keister. Barry moved up to second on the play, and stole third. Brasher fouled out to Ahearn. One run.

Eighth Inning.
Jordan was easy. Dugleby to Douglas. Evans singled. Strang sacrificed. Dugleby to Douglas. McCredie sent a fly to Keister. No runs.

Evans flied. Douglas out. Hulswit was safe on Dahlen's error. He stole second and tried to third on Ahearn's wild throw. Zimmer sent a long fly to Sheppard and Hulswit caught. Dugleby flied. Thomas batted. Dahlen to Dahlen. Barry singled. Evans's wild throw. Barry singled and Dugleby scored. Barry's grounder to Thomas came home on Ahearn's wild throw. Wolverton retired the side with a grounder to Jordan. Three runs.

Ninth Inning.
Sheppard was safe on Brasher's wild throw. Doyle's popped to Hulswit. Dahlen fouled out to Zimmer. Sheppard stole second. Ahearn grounded to Wolverton. No runs.

Tenth Inning.
Sheppard was safe on Brasher's wild throw. Doyle's popped to Hulswit. Dahlen fouled out to Zimmer. Sheppard stole second. Ahearn grounded to Wolverton. No runs.

Final Score.
Brooklyn 10, Philadelphia 3.

ITHACA, N. Y., May 2.—To-day Cornell crossed bats with Princeton on Percy Field in the most important game played here. For two days the Tigers have been in Ithaca practicing, in order to get accustomed to the field, for the visitors wish to take no chances. Stevens was on the slab for Princeton, while Chase, Cornell's veteran twirler, was the dispenser of curves for Cornell. Unstied, the crack freshman pitcher, who made a three-bagger, a home run and three singles out of five times to bat against Binghamton League, played in right field in Drake's place. Lewis, Cornell's shortstop, went into the game suffering from a bad cut in the forehead.
